

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—SEVEN-ROOM HOUSE in good condition. Large lot and fruit trees. Inquire 507 River street. 21e12

FOR SALE—NINE ROOM HOUSE with all modern conveniences. Inquire of R. Dusinger, Berwick, Pa. 14e14.

LOOKING FOR A FARM? WE have over $250,000 worth of properties listed and if interested would appreciate a call from you. Exceptionally liberal terms to prospective purchasers. Consult Buy-U-A-Home Realty Company, Jadwin Building, Honesdale, Pa. 18e1f

HAVING SOLE AGENCY IN Wayne county for International Stock Food, stock owners, desiring same may secure it in any quantity at F. G. Rickard's livery, Honesdale, Pa. Valuable premiums with each purchase of 100 pounds. 15e14

MISCELLANEOUS.

THREE GOOD ROUGHERS WANTED. Demer Bros. Co., Great Bend, Pa. 18f

WANTED—A GIRL FOR GENERAL housework. Apply at 1114 Court street, Honesdale. 16e14f

WANAMAKER & BROWN ARE famous for making good clothing. See their elegant assortment of cloths and styles for Spring and Summer. Just sent card to A. M. Henshaw, Honesdale R. D. 4. 20e15

SKATING RINK FOR RENT FOR balls, parties, bazaars, fairs, etc. See N. B. Spencer, Manager, for terms. 1e1f

BINDER CHAIN LOST—NEAR CAJAW Pond, Monday, February 24. Finder please return to R. B. Boner, Clark's Corners. 19c2

IF YOU CANNOT BUILD A HOME buy one already built. We have a fine list to select from. Prices range from $3,000 to $13,000. All are first-class residences and located in Honesdale. Buy-U-A-Home Realty Co., Box 52, Honesdale, Pa. 18f

HOUSEKEEPERS ATTENTION—You will soon need old newspapers to place under your carpets. We have them. Only 5c per bundle, enough for a room. 18e1f

REASONS FOR SATURDAY TRADE DAY.

In the editorial department of The Citizen two weeks ago we called attention to the fact that the Commercial Association of Scranton had decided to hold a monthly trade day, and were to hold the first one in March. It has been tacitly understood that when Scranton held a trade day Honesdale would hold one on the same day. The announcements began to appear in the middle of this week, and at the firing of the first gun The Citizen got busy. The Scranton papers named this Saturday, and we began arranging to show in our advertising columns that Honesdale is on the map and that her merchants are ready to take good care of all Wayne county interests.

LOCAL NEWS

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. William G. Spettigue of High street, on March 4.

While delivering a telegram on Tuesday, Albert Allenbacher, special messenger, sprained his right ankle and is confined to the house.

The ladies of the Honesdale First Baptist church will give their annual Easter Supper Thursday, March 27. Aprons will be on sale.

Attorney V. A. Decker, Dr. L. P. Cooke and Burgess R. W. Murphy, all of Hawley, attended the funeral of the late Judge Wilson Thursday afternoon.

A petition has been presented to the court for the adoption of David E. Gilson, child of Laura Gilson, by W. L. Hopkins, and that the child's name be changed to David E. Hopkins. The petition was granted by the Court.

A libel in divorce was filed with Prothonotary Barnes Monday between Rachael A. Rockwell, libellant, and Alyn O. Rockwell, respondent. They were married December 29, 1906. Cruel and barbarous treatment is charged.

Monday was the last day for filing remonstrances against liquor licenses and only two were filed with Prothonotary W. J. Barnes. They were both directed against the application of Horace H. Hoyle for a hotel license in Dyberry township. This is a new application. A notice that a remonstrance would be made against the application of Otto Dolmetsch for a hotel license in Salem was filed Monday.

The Wayne County Bar Association, at a meeting held Wednesday afternoon appointed the following committee to draft resolutions of respect to the late Judge Henry Wilson. The committee is composed of Judge A. T. Searle, R. M. Stocker, C. A. McCarty and Homer Greene. The resolutions will be read at a meeting of the bar on the second Monday in April at which time different members of the association will eulogize upon their departed member and friend.

All the world is laughing at "Baby Mine" and its uproariously funny incidents which follow each other with such startling rapidity as to carry the most blasé in any audience entirely out of themselves. W. A. Brady (L'd) is sending the attraction to the Lyric Monday, March 24, and unusual interest centers about the engagement as Nanon Welch, J. A. Bliss and Eda von Bue-low, all prominent in the New York cast, will be seen in the characters which have won them deserved fame for the past two seasons.

Miss Lucy Russell left Thursday for New York City where she will spend a few days.

—On Friday, Mar. 14th, Pleasant Valley grange will hold a supper in Dyberry hall.

—Norman Farnham has entered the employ of the Gurney Electric Elevator Co., being located in the electrical department.

—A petition for a guardian for Bridget Clune, a person of feeble mind, of Buckingham, was presented to court Monday. March 15 was set for a hearing.

—There will be another athletic meet in the gymnasium of the Honesdale High school Friday night. Two basket ball games, races and wrestling matches will be part of the program.

—Lackawanna county is a trifle behind the times in the matter of handling liquor licenses. It is customary for the applications of old houses to be granted without reading and only the new places and those against which remonstrances have been filed, will be read. Lackawanna county with 1400 licenses, heretofore has had them all read. Heading a suggestion from our county they now get through in a comparatively short time by only reading the list of new applications and remonstrances.

—The funeral of the late Christopher Lowe was held from St. John's R. C. church at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning. Rev. Burke celebrated requiem high mass. The out-of-town people who attended were: Mr. and Mrs. James O'Neill of Pleasant Mount; Mr. and Mrs. Michael O'Hara of Pleasant Mount; Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Scheaver of Scranton; John Frederick of Scranton; Mr. and Mrs. James Brennan of Carbondale; Mrs. Joel G. Hill, of Lookout; Mrs. R. E. McDermott, of Scranton; Evelyn and Sadie Lane, of Binghamton; Mrs. Joseph Tobin, of Scranton; Mr. Hill, of Wilkes-Barre.

—The Honesdale borough council held a special meeting Monday evening to consider the granting of a franchise to the Wayne County Railway Company. The company asks for the right of way of certain streets of Honesdale for maintaining and operating a street railway. Several minor changes were made in the ordinance and decided upon. One of the changes was to extend the life of the franchise from fifty to seventy-five years. No definite action was taken on the matter Monday night but at the regular meeting this (Thursday) evening the matter will probably be favorably acted upon.

—The members of Co. E are taking new interest in their work since the inspection last week. Last Tuesday the boys put in one hour of drilling that showed that they were "there" and meant to have a better organization. Next Tuesday they will enjoy a smoker after drill and it is requested that all members be present. Some lively matches on the rifle range are being talked of for this summer for which prizes will be offered by the officers of the company. A membership contest is started in the company. Major E. H. Conrad, of Scranton, has offered a prize of a regimental pin to the one securing the most recruits.

—The members of Texas No. 4 Fire Company are making some great improvements about their property at the present time. Under the supervision of Ernest Daniels and Jacob Greenfield, the boys assemble at the truck house almost every night to help in putting on a metal ceiling in all the rooms on the first floor. They are also putting metal sides around the rooms. When completed it will change the appearance of the rooms on this floor so that persons who have been in the building will be greatly surprised. Each room is of a different pattern. When the improvements are completed the boys will have a reopening of their fire house in the near future.

—Argument court was held Thursday morning with Judge A. T. Searle presiding. Several motions were made and one or two arguments heard. The trial list was read and most of the cases for trial were either continued or settled. The case of the Wayne Concrete Supply and Construction Co. vs. Cortright & Son will be settled. Ordered that judgment be entered by agreement. The cases of Theresa Gerety vs. Columbian Protective Association and Rena Congdon against the same were continued by application of defendant whose attorneys, Scragg & Scragg argued that the whole trouble of the American Fraternal Association would probably be settled in the near future. The fire cases of A. M. Leine against insurance companies to recover insurance. Ordered that if not settled before March 15, rule granted to strike off appeal will be made absolute.

The other cases against the Columbian Protective Ass'n will be argued in April.

—Sheriff F. C. Kimble received the first of the week circulars from Ralph W. Chapman, sheriff of Kalamazoo, Mich., offering $400 reward for the arrest and conviction of John H. Kline with several aliases. He is wanted for forgery and obtaining money under false pretenses on Jan. 28, 1913, at Kalamazoo, Mich. It is thought that the man is somewhere in this locality. Kline had a unique method of working. He called up the banker in a small town, knowing there would be a notary public near, and asked where he could purchase a good farm. He was told of a good farm for $10,000, and went to see it. The next day he made arrangements to meet the parties. The banker was a notary public and Kline told him he wanted to send the power of attorney to a friend. He obtained the banker's signature and then asked the farmer to sign as a witness. This gave him the signatures of the notary and the owner of the land and also the seal. He obtained the farmer's deed saying he wanted to look over the abstract and made a copy of it and filed it in the Register's office. He then called up a real estate firm in a neighboring city and said he had purchased a farm for $10,000 and wanted to borrow $3,000 on it. They went to look over the land and $3,500 was advanced on the farm, Kline giving a mortgage for the loan. When the money was paid over to Kline he left.

—Robert L. Ames, aged twenty-six years, died at his home in Gouldsboro Tuesday, March 4. Funeral was held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Gouldsboro.

—A young son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hertel, of White Mills, has pneumonia. Mrs. William Daniels of this place, is helping care for him.

—Stephen Hagan, of Hancock, N. Y., while coupling cars at Mayfield, Pa., last week, was caught between two cars. His right arm was smashed and was amputated below the elbow.

—The new five-cent piece is a wonder, if not a joy. Mark especially the humph head on the extraordinary beast-god called a bison. And the Indian is too big for his frame. An ugly coin that should teach us that the root of all evil must not be beautiful in an uplifted country.

—David N. Welsh, of Starrucca, was brought to Honesdale to-day by Constable Andrew Glover and placed in the county jail. He was charged with making threats against citizens of Starrucca to do them bodily harm. A commission was appointed to-day by the Court to look into his sanity.

—In the matter of Augusta K. Arnold et al. vs. The Northwestern Telephone Co., a rule has been granted on plaintiff to show cause why writ of action should not be quashed. It is made returnable the second Monday in April. Mrs. Arnold started suit some time ago to recover $20,000 damages for injuries to her son while in the employ of the company.

—A very fine program has been prepared by the entertainment committee for the concert to be given in connection with the annual ball of Hose Company No. 1 at the Park street armory Easter Monday night. The concert will be rendered by Honesdale people of ability and it is needless to say that all who attend will be pleased with the entertainment.

—A bill abolishing all fees of officers of counties containing less than 150,000 population, and establishing salaries accordingly, was introduced into the House of Representatives at Harrisburg last week. The bill will affect over fifty counties of the state. The scale of salaries is based on 25,000 units and the provisions for counties of the size of Perry the list of salaries is as follows: Sheriff, prothonotary, recorder and treasurer, each $2,000; clerk of courts and register, each $1,500, commissioners, $1,000; auditors, $100; coroner $400, and solicitor $300. The above scale of salaries would also be allotted to county officers in Wayne if the bill is passed by the present legislature.

—Two cases from Wayne county were argued before the Superior court judges in Scranton on Monday. One was the case of William J. Ramble against the Pennsylvania Coal company. The plaintiff was represented by Homer Greene, while the defendant's attorneys were Searle & Salmon, of this place, and Warren, Knapp & O'Malley, of Scranton. The case was appealed from the court of Common Pleas of Wayne county. The second case presented before the superior was that of the Overseers of Canaan township against the overseers of Covington township, Lackawanna county. M. E. Simons represented Canaan township and Searle & Salmon Covington township. The case was appealed from the Quarter Sessions court of Wayne county.

—H. M. Geyer, a leading cattle dealer of Worcester, Montgomery county, has been convicted and fined for violating the interstate cattle law. The charges were preferred by the State Livestock Sanitary Board. State Veterinarian, Dr. C. J. Marshall, states that Geyer shipped a number of dairy cows from another State into Pennsylvania. After being examined as is required, one cow was found to be not free from disease. Under the law when an animal does not pass a satisfactory examination it cannot be disposed of except under the supervision of the State Livestock Sanitary Board. This precaution is necessary in order to prevent unscrupulous dealers disposing of diseased cattle to innocent farmers and dairymen. In this case Geyer disposed of the diseased cow while it was under quarantine and without notifying the Board.

—The following local and other good news and story matter can be found in to-day's Citizen upon the pages designated: Correspondents and Harrisburg letter, page 2; "Down Hawley Way" and other hamlet news letters, page 3; real estate transfers and our serial story, page 6; books added to Honesdale free library and President Wilson's message, page 7. In addition to our inside pages, which always contain excellent reading matter for our readers, we desire to call our patrons' attention to the last or eighth page of to-day's paper. Saturday will be a special trade day for Honesdale and some of our progressive merchants present very attractive prices. Read each advertisement over carefully and then go shopping. Honesdale merchants have the goods. Articles can be purchased just as cheaply here as anywhere else. Patronize Citizen advertisers.

—Miss Hershey, of Philadelphia, is registered at the Allen House. Miss Hershey is in Honesdale in the interest of the Chautauqua movement and is taking care of the preliminaries before organization is perfected, which will shortly follow. She has a very pleasing personality and makes friends wherever she goes. It is hoped that she will be instrumental in securing a number of additional grantors to the already large list. Miss Hershey addressed the art class at the home of Miss Mary Weston Wednesday afternoon. When Honesdale gets the ladies of the town interested in any project it is bound to become a success. Our prediction is that the Chautauqua, to be held in Honesdale in August, will be the largest event and most instructive and educational project of its kind ever to have been held in this part of Pennsylvania. We should put our shoulders to the wheel and push—then success will crown the efforts of the committees in charge.

Some Citizens We Greet

Charles T. Bellamy, of Scranton, was in Honesdale on Tuesday calling on old-time friends and acquaintances. Mr. Bellamy was a Prompton boy in the years of yesterday. He went over into the Lackawanna valley and began to do things. He turned his attention to invention and patented a shovel that so appealed to the manufactory of shovels at Wyoming that the heads of that institution, Payne Petebone, bought out his rights and put Charley on Easy street. For many years Mr. Bellamy has been connected with the International Salt Company, and he has a rare faculty of convincing people that "salt is good," especially the international kind. He takes great pleasure in making occasional visits to his native county, and his many friends always welcome his coming.

Hon. Wm. B. Guinnip, of Atco, was in Honesdale on inauguration day. He said he attended one inauguration, that of Grover Cleveland, and he regretted he was not in Washington to see President Wilson take the oath of office. Say, it is a pretty good tonic to run across Will Guinnip as he comes into town, fresh and breezy from his home up where the Delaware so softly flows. He always has a cheery word and a pleasant smile for his friends, and he seems to know almost everybody.

Judson E. Tiffany, of Pleasant Mount, was greeting his hosts of friends in Honesdale on Tuesday. When informed that Tuesday seemed to be a sort of rallying day in Honesdale for the "boys" who used to attend the Prompton Normal school, he said: "So Charley Bellamy is in town, is he? And Will Guinnip is here, too, is he? Good! You see, we had to do something to-day. After being shut up for sixteen years, it was high time we showed our appreciation of a change by coming to Honesdale, or doing something desperate!" Then he told us of his new auto and said he was going to take us out to Pleasant Mount some day, and we just promised that we'd go.

W. C. Norton, of Harrisburg, was in Honesdale on Tuesday enroute to Beachlake, where he transacted business. Mr. Norton is a great admirer of Governor John K. Tener, and why shouldn't he be? Speaking of Governor Tener he told a representative of The Citizen that he was the best governor that Pennsylvania has had for 25 years. Mr. Norton says the governor is strong for the agricultural and horticultural development of the Keystone state and will do more through the present legislature than any governor we have ever had. Mr. Norton is inspector for all live cattle that is shipped into Pennsylvania.

George Wahl, of Scranton, was in Honesdale on Wednesday, looking after his Wayne county line of insurance. It is about forty years ago that we first met Mr. Wahl. He trimmed the hair and waxed the mustaches of all the famous men of Scranton—that is, of them. Our old shaving George got us to pay a dollar for it still in existence in its handle. George got tired of shaving and cutting, and tried newspaper work, but he was a German paper for the Scranton of Scranton. Then he went into insurance, and there he is. He would use a little of the good stuff he used to put on ambitious young men's upper lips, he would look as young as he did forty years ago. He has a lot of friends in Honesdale, and they always welcome his coming to the Maple City.

Talking about forty years reminds us of the pleasant meeting we had with Mr. T. E. Payne of Pleasant

Mount, who was in Honesdale this week serving his country as a member of the Grand Jury. Mr. Payne has taken The Citizen more than forty years, and really feels that he "couldn't keep house without it." He used to follow farming as an avocation, but now resides right in the beautiful little Wayne county village of Pleasant Mount where he conducts business. His step is sprightly and his eyes have the genial sparkle that makes his friends ever glad to greet him.

Christy Mathewson broke his arm in two places on Saturday last. The New York Giant fans need not worry however, as it was Christopher Mathewson, Jr., who had the misfortune and it happened in Factoryville where Mrs. Mathewson and Christy, Jr., are sojourning while the star twirler is working out in Marlin, Texas.

Mrs. Raymond W. Hardenbergh and son, Raymond W., Jr., and daughter Helen, wife and children of Raymond W. Hardenbergh, of Buenos Aires, South America, are spending a fortnight at the residence of Hon. E. B. Hardenbergh. They are returning to their home, having spent the winter in Augusta, Ga., and in Chicago with relatives. They expect to sail from New York on the 22nd of March. Raymond W. Hardenbergh, son of Hon. E. B. Hardenbergh, is a representative of P. D. Armour & Co. in South America. At present he is superintending the construction of a two million dollar plant near Buenos Aires.

LEDGEDALE.

The funeral of W. A. Hazelton took place on Tuesday, Feb. 18, interment in East Sterling cemetery. He leaves a widow and infant son and an adopted daughter.

The Ladies' Aid met with Mrs. M. H. Harloe on March 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Casper Sampson of Ariol, have been the guests of W. H. Sterner and wife.

W. H. Sterner spent Saturday and Sunday with Scranton friends.

Miss Lizzie Gerrity of Scranton, spent Saturday and Sunday with her mother at this place.

A surprise party was tendered F. B. Simons on the 22d.

Mrs. Wm. Kimble, who has been with her daughter the past three months, returned to her home at Dyberry on Saturday last.

M. L. Reidy has accepted a position at Mount Union, Pa.

CHURCH NOTES.

The special preacher at Grace Episcopal church Friday, March 7, 7:30 p. m., will be the Rev. John D. Skilton, principal of the School of the Lackawanna, Scranton.

On Sunday there will be morning service at 10:30; Sunday school at 12; and a service with address especially for young men and young women at 7:30 p. m.

Children's service on Tuesday at 4:15 p. m.

Christ Church, Indian Orchard, Sunday, March 9, 2:30, Rev. A. L. Whittaker will hold service and preach. Sunday school every Sunday afternoon at 1:30.

Personal Items

John Fay, of Corning, N. Y., is home for a few weeks.

John D. Evans, of Scranton, called on friends in town Saturday.

Miss Grace Smith is the guest of the Misses Elmore for an indefinite time.

Miss Jennie Atkinson of Schenectady, N. Y., is spending several weeks in town.

Edgar Richards, of Linden street, Scranton, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Gavitt.

Misses Mildred and Margery Ward were the guests of their sister, Mrs. Dwight Dorfinger on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Hector, of Beachlake, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stevens on Sunday.

Mrs. Julia Baumann has lumbago. John Brown, of Scranton, was a business man here on Wednesday.

L. Fuerth was attending to business in Hawley the first of the week.

Mrs. J. Rubin, son Leonard and daughter, Mildred, are guests of relatives in New York City.

Lewis Highhouse is in Moses Taylor hospital where he underwent an operation the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Olaf M. Spettigue, Jr., will occupy the rooms soon to be vacated by Mrs. F. E. Lawyer.

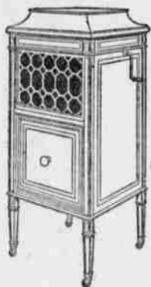

Miss Florence Reed, of Honesdale, who has been ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Reed, is able to be around.

Miss Mary Kelley, of Baltimore, Md., is making a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James P. Kelley, Church street.

Nicholas Albert, of Honesdale, a patient at the State Tuberculosis dispensary, left on Tuesday for the Mt. Alto Sanitarium for treatment.

H. P. Woodward, editor of the Peckville Journal, was in Honesdale on Monday, coming in on the 3:15 p. m. train, and returning on the 4:40 D. & H. railroad.

Thomas A. Edison's new Musical Instrument

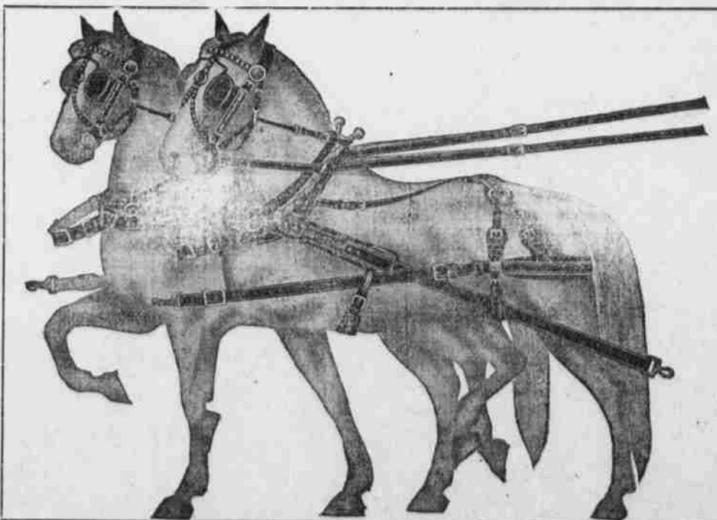

A DISC PHONOGRAPH WITH INDESTRUCTIBLE RECORDS

New Musical Instrument With a Diamond

We have received three of these most wonderful instruments and will be pleased to have you come in and hear them.

F. A. Jenkins Music House Lyric Theatre Building. Honesdale, Pa.

Are You Ready for Spring? How About a New Harness?

This cut shows one special long trace team harness with crotch back strap and breeching:

Price with jockey straps, less collars, $35 per set. Regular Farm Harness, with chains, $30 per set. Light Double Harness, $25 to $38 per set. Single Harness, $12 to $25 per set.

Big line of Horse Collars at Right Prices. Have our collar expert fit your collars and you will have no collar trouble. We sell all kinds of Strap Work and Harness Extras. Come in and see our big line. Our harness business is growing. There's a reason.

Everything for the Farm MURRAY CO. Honesdale, Penn.